Examples Illustrating Whether or Not You Are Required to Submit Scores

Are you required to submit TOEFL, IELTS or Cambridge Exam scores? The following examples illustrate whether or not you are required to submit scores. There may be exceptions to the examples listed below. The Summer Session Office makes the final decision as to whether or not a student is required to submit TOEFL, IELTS or Cambridge Exam scores.

- Xiaogu from China went to Beijing for his undergraduate degree. Since the language of instruction was Mandarin: he is required to take the TOEFL, IELTS or Cambridge Exam.

- Abby from Portugal got her undergraduate degree in London: she is not required to take the TOEFL, IELTS or Cambridge Exam because the language of instruction was English.

- James from the United Kingdom went to Germany for his undergraduate degree: he is not required to take the TOEFL, IELTS or Cambridge Exam because he is a native English speaker.

- Suki from Japan received her undergraduate degree from a U.S. college where the language of instruction was English: she is not required to take the TOEFL, IELTS or Cambridge Exam.

- Fayza from Pakistan went to school in Islamabad where the language of instruction at her university was English: she is not required to take the TOEFL, IELTS or Cambridge Exam.

- Luca from Switzerland went to Shanghai for his undergraduate degree but then went to Sydney for a graduate degree: he is not required to take the TOEFL, IELTS or Cambridge Exam because the language of instruction was English.